ANNOUNCEMENTS

Selectman Williams wanted to thank all the volunteer fireman, she attended the annual dinner, and it was very warming and comforting to see all the volunteers.

Selectman Goldblatt reminded everyone that Saturday April 2nd is the next shredding day, mattress recycling and the first Hazwaste disposal. The Orange Rotary Club is helping the Recycling Committee and donations can be made to their scholarship fund. Please try to bring your shredding documents in boxes that do not to be returned to help move the line quickly. Mattresses can be brought to HPCC, or it can be picked up for a donation to the Orange Lions Club. For pick up contact Ken Lenz at 203-795-3906. The Orange Community Women are collecting housewares and toys under the pavilion.

Information about the event is on the Recycling Committees website, as well as preregistration forms and a list of accepted items for the Hazwaste collection.

First Selectman Zeoli made the following announcements:

- In Memorium: Patricia Connelly, Sue Blanchette, Dr. Bob Lanzi
- The Fireman’s Annual Dinner was a very nice event and thank you to all the volunteer fireman and their families for what they do. Congratulations to Drew Panapada who received the Fire Fighter of the Year award.
- Our thoughts are with the people of the Ukraine.
- Sunday, March 13th: Daylight savings begins. Please remember to spring ahead and move your clocks ahead one hour.
- Please check the Town website for Bicentennial Events. There are registrations forms for the parade, family dinner and the golf tournament.
