ANNOUNCEMENTS

Selectman Okenquist thanked the Orange Volunteer Fire Department for responding to his home at 12:30 a.m. for a carbon monoxide detector. Thankfully, it was only a battery problem, but they tested the air and made sure it was safe for them. A big thank you for coming out to the house and making sure everything was okay.

Selectman Goldblatt read an announcement he received from RWA that HazWaste Central in New Haven is open as of May 30th. To protect the safety of participants and employees they are making the following changes to operations on collection days. Clean Harbors is directing the traffic flow, they are not using volunteers. There will be signs posted along the traffic pattern. All customers must pre-register online, paper forms have been eliminated. Please take advantage of properly disposing of any hazardous materials, there is no cost to residents for the program and it is open every Saturday from 9 a.m. to noon except for holidays.

First Selectman Zeoli made the following announcements:

In Memoriam: Phyllis Farace, Don Nielsen, Dr. Paul Barash, Anthony Pagnataro

- Congratulations to all the Graduates from nursery school to college!
- Town Hall is open, but many transactions can be done on-line. If you need to enter the building; please wear a mask and wait at the doorway of the office you wish to enter until you are recognized and maintain social distancing when in the building.
- HPCC is open with the same restriction. There are no programs at Park & Rec or for the seniors at this time. In speaking with the directors today programs are coming back, and camp is open for registration and the aquatics director hopes to open the pool around August 15th.
- June is dog license month. Postcards have gone out asking people to renew online or apply by mail. Instructions are on the town website or call the Town Clerk's office with any questions.
- Taxpayer Attestation forms are available on the Town's website for residents financially impacted by COVID-19 who may need help with this year's tax bill but, it does not help on any prior taxes owed to the town.
- The following town events have been cancelled due to COVID 19
 - Fourth of July Concert and Fireworks
 - Volunteer Fireman's Carnival – They are still trying to hold the raffle. The Fire Truck 50K Challenge is a go fund me that was set up to help the department with paying for a new truck. There is a button on the town website where donations can be made.

COMMITTEES

Pension Board – Selectman Goldblatt reported they met last month and in the first quarter of 2020 pension investments were down 15.9%. Total earning last year were around 8%. From the snapshot on March 31st to the meeting in mid-May a good portion was recovered. The pension fund is in a very solid position with just over 21 million in assets.

Emergency Management – Selectman Novicki reported the subcommittee on COVID 19 continues to meet weekly. Cases continue to go down and there are less than 20 active cases in the town. Traffic and activity in town is increasing since the partial reopening. There is concern that businesses follow the guidelines and will not allow entry to people without masks. A main concern is people who will let their guard down and another outbreak could be on the horizon. Orange Economic Development and the health department had a webinar with business owners regarding phase II reopening on June 17th. All regulations are on the state website. The Health Department will start contract tracing soon. PPE is still being handed out to businesses through Emergency Management. Businesses may contact Tino Russo if they need any. June 12th is the last day of school and June 30th will be the last day of food distribution. Town buildings have been cleaned and getting ready to reopen. Town clergy has been meeting and some houses of worship will be having outdoor services, some will continue with online services, and some will have limited re-openings.

Personnel – First Selectman Zeoli reported that the personnel committee will be meeting soon to discuss non-union staff, the Assistant Sanitarian position has been advertised, and the Director of Community Services will be posted soon.

At 8:32 P.M., Selectman Okenquist made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Selectman Williams seconded the motion. All voted in favor.

Respectfully submitted,

Ann Denny
Secretary to the Board of Selectmen
