as well as owning a facility at 37 Robinson Boulevard. They would like to consolidate their business so that it is completely in Orange.

Robert Wheway, a licensed Professional Engineer and principal of Codespoti & Associates, 263 Boston Post Road, Orange, is representing Light Sources, Inc.

(Commissioner John Hudson arrived at 7:14 p.m. and joined the meeting.)

Mr. Wheway displayed a plan for the commission. He explained that five wetland areas have been identified. He stated that they are not proposing any filling within the wetlands boundaries. Wetlands would not be directly impacted by this project. A brief discussion ensued.

Mr. Wheway explained the proposed drainage in detail. He noted that there would be improvements to drainage. He stated that Mr. Andacs spoke with the neighbors to explain the proposal and to be a good neighbor. Mr. Wheway stated that they will install a one-foot berm to divert water away from residential properties.

Mr. Wheway displayed an aerial view of the site. He explained that there would be four loading docks in conjunction with the warehouse. They would be regrading the area. Mr. Wheway explained that to facilitate drainage to the catch basins, parking in the rear would be decreased. Additional parking would be created in the front of the building.

Chairman Ruotolo asked if there were any questions. There were none.

A motion was made by John Hudson and seconded by Lesley Giovanelli to accept and approve the construction of a 22,920 s.f. addition and reconfiguration of the rear parking lot at 37 Robinson Boulevard, subject to all standard conditions. The motion carried with the vote recorded as follows: Hudson, aye; Giovanelli, aye; Ewen, aye; Perfetto, aye; Ruotolo, aye. The vote was recorded as 5-0 to accept and approve the motion.

Mr. Wheway asked the commission if they would accept the berm. The commission replied affirmatively.

Chairman Ruotolo noted that there were no public hearings tonight.

A motion was made by John Hudson and seconded by James Ewen to adjourn the meeting. The motion carried with the vote recorded as follows: Hudson, aye; Ewen, aye; Perfetto, aye; Giovanelli, aye; Ruotolo, aye. The vote was recorded as 5-0 to accept and approve the motion.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:38 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Tamara Trantales,
